Home Heating Oil

Save Now for a Warmer Winter

Skelly Oil would like to help you plan for the winter months by offering a budget plan facility which will considerably ease the financial burden of home heating bills during the winter period.

How does it work?

You pay monthly or weekly instalments in advance of your delivery by direct debit using the form enclosed. When you require a fill of home heating oil, we will let you know what your current balance is. At this stage you may either order fuel to the value of your balance in your account or you may order a larger amount and pay the balance on delivery.

In order to avail of this offer

Please complete the enclosed direct debit form and return directly to us, stating the amount you would like to be debited from your account each month or week. Payments will be taken as agreed.

Please Note:

- NO CREDIT
- Monthly and weekly payments.
- Payments may be cancelled or altered by sending a written instruction with one months notice.
- Skelly Oil reserve the right to withdraw this facility should the account prove to be unsatisfactory.
